

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY MORNING,
BY
CHAS. M. MEACHAM,
SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Local reading notices 20 cents per line, special advertisements & classified advertisements furnished on application.

Obituary 15 and 20 cents per line.

TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1892.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce
in CHAS. H. LAYNE,
a solicitor of the State Bar, of Louisville, Ky.,
subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Harroldine Democrat is for Chadwick anyhow.

Senator Hill will speak at Jackson,
Miss., to-day and at Savannah, Ga.,
Thursday.

The Texas Republicans in Convention instructed for Harrison. This is probably due to the efforts of Col.
Smart to solidify things.

The Lick telescope should be turned on the locality where the Blair boom is supposed to be. A search watch has failed to find it.

The hound used to be in Belling
Sea when some of us studied Geography has disappeared of late, like most of the scents that were wont to sport in its waters.

There is no good reason for establishing an exclusively "female asylum." In all the lunatic asylums
the male and female wards are entirely separated.

Mrs. Sarah Althea Hill Sherron Terry, the noted California adventures,
has ended her career in the state asylum at Stockton. Force had to be used to compel her last week.

The Carrollton Democrat last week
issued a very creditable double number, profusely illustrated with portraits of leading citizens and cuts of buildings in and about Carrollton.

Seattle, Wash., which went Republican at the last election by 1,300
majority has been swept by the Democrats at the next. Majority, Mayor and nearly all city officers were elected.

Among those suggested to connect
him with your son is the HOPKINSVILLE KEN-TUCKIAN. For many years he has done the most effective missionary
work in a county that was supposed
to be hopelessly Republican, and by
intelligent and tireless work he has
been largely instrumental in not only
winning Christian a doubtful county,
but can point with pride to the fact
that he has won over to his cause
a new Democrat. He is widely scattered throughout Kentucky, his
friends are often sought in the settlement of party affairs and questions
of public policy. He is a practical
politician whose ways mean success,
but who comes out of every contest
clean handed.

Another prominent young Democrat of the district, who deserves much of the party, is Mr. Chas. M. Meacham, who has done the most effective missionary
work in a county that was supposed
to be hopelessly Republican, and by
intelligent and tireless work he has
been largely instrumental in not only
winning Christian a doubtful county,
but can point with pride to the fact
that he has won over to his cause
a new Democrat. He is widely
scattered throughout Kentucky, his
friends are often sought in the settlement of party affairs and questions
of public policy. He is a practical
politician whose ways mean success,
but who comes out of every contest
clean handed.

Mr. Meacham suggests these two young Democrats, belonging to which would reflect credit upon the party in the near future as $5,000,000.

Two large tobacco factories are to be erected here during this summer,
Mr. A. C. Cabaniss has secured the contingent power plant to meet the new needs of the Ohio river.

The cold wave was just a little too
cold to cause the writer to patricize
Tom Edmundson, instead of his old friend the Rock Spring, Mass.

The Texas Legislature met yesterday at Austin, and a regular, or
as there are only two, session
in the General Assembly
no caucus will be held. Mills, Culver and Clinton are the contestants
and all of them will remain in Washington until the contest is over.

Wisconsin strawberry raisers have formed a trade and marketing group in the state. Let us hope that the market may keep out of it until after the middle of May.

Mrs. Allie Toney, a young widow
who is postmistress at Midway, Ky.,
is to be removed by the President for immoral conduct. Mrs. Toney is a daughter of a Paris presuer and Charles C. Moore, late editor of the Daily Courier, of that city, and a son of the State, made war upon her
as well as upon a number of other men in Bourbon county. It is likely that the President's attention was called to these publications, with the result that Mrs. Toney is to lose her office.

LEGISLATIVE.

Who Shall be Delegates?
Under that head the Owensboro Messenger discusses the subject of statehood and calls for a bill to make the election of delegates to the convention of the statehood
of Kentucky.

The Bennett bill, consolidating the
offices of the sheriff and jailer, has
been favorably reported and is liable
to become a law.

The free pass bill has been made a special order for March 22, and the McCollum tobacco bill for the 23d.

The Bennett bill, consolidating the
offices of the sheriff and jailer, has
been favorably reported and is liable
to become a law.

The Governor has signed the bill.

The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

"The Democrats of this section of
Kentucky have not been heretofore
very particular as to who represented
them as district delegates to the na-
tional convention; then, however,
they are going to who might feel dis-
posed to make a canvas for them.

We copy the Messenger's plan.

Hopkinsville Kentucky.

THO. R. MARTLEY, Business Manager

TUESDAY, MARCH 16th, 1892

PERSONAL GOSPI.

Mr. Bailey Richards has returned from New York.

Miss Hallie Rivers, of Lafayette, is visiting in the city.

Dick McCarroll, of Dallas, Tex., is visiting his parents here.

Hom. C. Pratt, of Madisonville, was attending Court yesterday.

Mr. S. H. Lewis, of Paducah, visited his parents Sunday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Samuels, of Nashville, were in the city Sunday.

Mr. A. J. White, of Nashville, is visiting relatives in the city and vicinity.

Esq. Ned Campbell and son, of Henderson, are visiting Mr. B. S. Campbell.

Miss Nellie Bradley and Miss Campbell visited Miss Jessie Whitlow at Carky, Sunday.

Miss Nellie Leroy, of the Superior Art Co., Evansville, Ind., left for her home Friday night.

Mr. Frank will leave for the east to buy and bring goods. Mr. French will accompany him to a point of Millbury.

Jim Hause, who has been Mr. E. P. Campbell's private secretary, will go to Louisville this week to take a position with the Kentucky Methodist.

Mr. F. M. Whitlow and little son of Carky, were in town Friday. Mr. Whitlow came in the interest of Sam Holzgen's marble works at Clarksville, and as usual did a good business for his establishment, which is the best established and best equipped store of its kind to be found anywhere in the whole country. Ca the telephone.

Mr. Edw. O. Leigh, Assistant Secretary of State, was in Tennessee last week on public business and took occasion to run over to this city to spend Sunday. By a singular coincidence he was so fortunate as to meet a party here for whom he had at attachment. He spent most of the day looking after this case, and left in the afternoon after taking necessary steps to bring the matter into court.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Night Watchman Killed

T. J. Steverson, who had been an played as night watchman on the Henn bridge for years, was instantly killed Thursday night at 9 o'clock. His death is mysterious, but it was supposed that he had the idea of the bridge, and he was carried was accidentally discharged. His body was sent to a train which could not stop in time after he was discovered on the track.

Mr. McGehee Buried.

Hugh C. McGehee, a merchant at Oak Grove, went to St. Louis last week and fell into the hands of bandits and was robbed of all his money and his gold watch. The Evansville Courier of Friday gives Mr. McGehee's explanation of how it was done.

Mr. Virginia Hale, of Columbus, Ky., is in the city for the purpose of organizing a Sketch-Group Portrait School. Further announcements Friday.

The tobacco sales of Hancock Withers & Co., Clarksville, appear in this issue and will be read with interest by the smokers.

Matt Rawls of Princeton, was robbed of $35 by a thief, who entered his room at night. A negro was arrested on suspicion.

The Uniform rank, Col. P. H., was elected Thomas Rodman, captain, Henry First lieutenant, and Mr. P. Campbell second lieutenant.

Miss Virginia Hale, of Columbus, Ky., is in the city for the purpose of organizing a Sketch-Group Portrait School. Further announcements Friday.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

If you wish the best poultry stock that is typical in shape, rich in color and beautiful in marking, stock that is well fed, and will bring a high price, and will breed a line of fine flocks, then you should place an order with us.

The Empire Poultry Yard, Pickford & Co., Evansville, Ky.

Large numbers of people, men, women and children, walked on to the O. V. Railroad Sunday, many of them to the races, when the horses and jockeys on the track, coming home and finally to the track, to play cards for "jew's fun." After a while they began playing for small stakes, which their victim had squandered and lost several hundred dollars and a fine gold watch. They got off the track and gave him the slip, getting rid of the races.

MATRIMONIAL.

LeRoy Teator, a young man of Caldwell county, Mr. Marion LeRoy and Miss Adeline Teator. Married by Rev. Dr. B. J. Teator.

Bessie George—Dr. R. H. Burke, a young dentist of Princeton, was married to Miss Jessie George, of White Sulphur, Ky.

Many Extractions—Mr. T. M. Man and Miss Bobbie Elbridge, of Lyon county, adopted to Metropolis, Ill., and were married last week.

A social gathering at Murray was the honeymoon week of Geo. W. and Anna Williams with Miss Mathews, a daughter of Mr. Hillary Bell, of that place. The maid was so much opposed to the match that he threatened to shoot Derrington if he married his daughter. The girl, however, went with him to Illinois and they were married and have returned to Murray and gone to house keeping.

TOBACCO NEWS.

CLARKSVILLE MARKET.

Clarksville, Tenn., March 10, '92—Offerings of tobacco by Hancock, Withers & Co. for two weeks ending March 10th, 1892:

40 lbs. common to good leaf $5.60

34 lbs. common to good leaf $5.50 to $5.60.

DEATHS.

Robert E. Benson, an asylum patient, will be in Hopkinsville on April 1st and 2nd. Dr. Knapp will not visit this city during March parties deiring his services will do well to remember the above dates.

In Henderson coal is delivered in thirty bushel loads at $1 per bushel for lump; 30 cents per bushel for nut, and 30 cents for steam coal.

In quantities of fifty bushels or more it is one-third of the cost per bushel for lump.

Weather Prophet Foster's prediction for the weather for Sunday made Monday warm, Tuesday warm, Wednesday warm, Wednesday wind changing and cool, Thursday clearing and cool, Friday moderating, Saturday warm.

Four-year-old child of Mr. Kephart, son the city, Sunday.

HERE AND THERE.

Vitalia Liver Pills restore lost appetite.

Anything from a sickle to an Orry clock at Yates'.

According to the ground hog, this is the last day of winter.

The fruit crop is still all right in spite of the recent freeze.

Born to the wife of Esq. B. D. Lackey, of Fairview, on the 13th, a boy.

Orange spoons, fruit knives, cream jellies, etc., just received at Yates'.

Dr. A. P. Campbell, dentist, office at Mr. J. N. Mills, East Seventh St.

Ducker & Underwood, undertakers, office opposite First National Bank.

The six month limit on the Garity electric light franchise expires March 26.

Alex Crab had one of his hands badly mashed while working a job press in this office Friday.

Sunday was a day after one's own birthday. It was the first pretty Sabbath we have had for many weeks.

A chorus of twenty fire voices has been organized at the Baptist church by Bailey Walker as leader.

Low—A gold specimen between Baptist church and my residence. Liberal reward. J. P. Thomas.

Work has been stopped on the Ninth street hill with the new car to be taken up and rebuilt of stone.

Hotel, Hallam, was drowned while swimming in Barren river, near Bowling Green. He was 26 years old and a printer.

Memory didn't stop at 28. Tuesday, but by Friday morning fell to 21 degrees. It was a sure enough cold wave.

As low down as Clinton, Miss., the mercury went down to 30 degrees and in that latitude caught the frost in full bloom.

The Court of Appeals Saturday overruled the petition for a rehearing in the case of Abney vs. Long and Wheeler, Mills & Co.

The tobacco sales of Hancock Withers & Co., Clarksville, appear in this issue and will be read with interest by the smokers.

Matt Rawls of Princeton, was robbed of $35 by a thief, who entered his room at night. A negro was arrested on suspicion.

The Uniform rank, Col. P. H., was elected Thomas Rodman, captain, Henry First lieutenant, and Mr. P. Campbell second lieutenant.

Mr. Virginia Hale, of Columbus, Ky., is in the city for the purpose of organizing a Sketch-Group Portrait School. Further announcements Friday.

The tobacco sales of Hancock Withers & Co., Clarksville, appear in this issue and will be read with interest by the smokers.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

The O. V. hands nearest the city are now beyond the Major place and as the grade is light are making rapid headway. About four miles, or nearly half, of the road has been graded and the work is progressing rapidly.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B. L. Kirkland, an attorney from the state, is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lewis is one of the staunchest and best known Democrats in the county and a high official in the F. & L. Union. He will make a race that will set a 2:30 pace from start to finish.

Let the holders of dark tobacco, thoroughly organize and make the fight for their lives against the Regies, Clarksville, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Louisville can accomplish more by uniting under a common banner and fighting together, than they can by fighting alone.

Mr. B.

